BRITISH WARSHIPS ARE ON WAY TO VERA CRUZ

TO PROTECT BRITISH SUBJECTS IN MEXICO

While Part of the United States Army is Preparing to Stay Near Mexico All Winter.

CONGRESS OF MEXICO

Will Not Protest against Huerta's Message, Thus Ratifying Acts of His Regime.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
BRIDGETON, Barbados, Nov. 19.—The British cruiser squadron in West Indian waters last night received prearranged orders to proceed to Vera Cruz and the vessels sailed at midnight.
The British cruiser squadron consists of three armored cruisers, Suffolk, Lancaster and Berwick, and is commanded by Rear Admiral Sir Christopher Cradock. His flagship is the Suffolk. The cruisers are of the same type, displacing about 9,800 tons each. They each carry an armament of 14 6-inch, 8 12-pounder, and 3 3-pounder guns.

TO PROTECT SUBJECTS WITH THE WARSHIPS.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
LONDON, Nov. 19.—Great Britain decided to send the warships to Mexican waters from Barbados in order to protect British subjects should the necessity arise. This decision was arrived at by the British foreign office as a result of general news published in the press of the unsatisfactory conditions prevailing in Mexico and of the advance of the Constitutionalists in the vicinity of the Vera Cruz railway. No special information has been received by the government here of any danger to its citizens and it bases its change of policy on the account telegraphed to English newspapers from American sources.

AMERICANS CONTINUE TO LEAVE MEXICO CITY.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
VERA CRUZ, Nov. 19.—The exodus of Americans from Mexico continues. Forty persons, most of them women and children, arrived here this morning by train. The fugitives report that only a few American women and children remain in the federal capital.

REBEL COMMANDER IS GOING TOWARD SOUTH.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
NOGALES, Sonora, Nov. 19.—General Carranza with his staff will leave for the South at 2 p. m. it was announced today. Foreign Minister Escudero said he would announce before the train departed what effect this would have on the negotiations with President Wilson's envoy, William Bayard Hale. It was not made known whether Escudero and other members of the Constitutionalists cabinet would accompany Carranza.

CONFERENCE IS HELD WITH WALTER H. PAGE.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
LONDON, Nov. 19.—Lord Cowdray who possesses many interests in Mexico, had a lengthy conference today at his own request with Walter H. Page, the United States ambassador. It is supposed that Lord Cowdray wished to obtain information as to how far his Mexican interests were endangered and desired to emphasize to the American ambassador his denial that he had given financial assistance to Huerta.

FEDERAL TROOPS ARE TO WINTER IN TEXAS.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
TEXAS CITY, Tex., Nov. 19.—Tents in the camp of the Second division of the United States army were walled and refurnished today and stoves were installed in them while hundreds of soldiers began work on a sewerage system to connect with the city mains. This was regarded as indicating that the division would remain here throughout the winter.

GENERAL HUERTA HAS HIS MESSAGE READY.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
MEXICO CITY, Nov. 19.—General Huerta planned today to submit to the members of his cabinet the message which he proposes to deliver to his newly-convened Congress tomorrow. The cabinet meeting was called for this afternoon, at which time it was expected that Huerta would ask its members to go over the message with him. The document is short and it is said to review tersely the most important acts of the Huerta administration, dealing frankly with the dissolution of Congress and calling attention to the strained relations with the United States.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
MEXICO CITY, Nov. 19.—A telegram from Secretary Bryan is reported to have reached the American embassy here this afternoon. It is said to contain information that "a matter of a serious nature" is under consideration in Washington in reference to Mexico.

ITALIAN MINER IS KILLED INSTANTLY

FORMER

When Caught under a Heavy Fall of Slate in Pinnick-Minnick Mine.

Clarksburg Woman's Funeral at Fairmont Attended by Local People.

A number of Clarksburg people went to Fairmont Wednesday and attended the funeral of Mrs. Laura Wilson Hunter, wife of Robert H. Hunter, whose death occurred Monday night at her home in that city and was caused by neuralgia of the heart. Her death was unexpected and caused a great shock in the community in which she lived.

Mrs. Hunter was formerly Mrs. Charles E. Wilson, who for years conducted a photograph gallery in Clarksburg. During her residence in this city she made a number of warm, personal friends, all of whom are grieved over her death.

INDUSTRIAL WORKERS

Are Spurred by the Firemen Who Are on a Strike at the Textile Mills.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
YAWFRENCE, Mass., Nov. 19.—Assistance and sympathetic action on the part of the Industrial Workers of the World apparently are not welcomed by the 350 firemen who have struck at the textile mills for an eight-hour day, Michael J. Hagerty, secretary of the firemen's union, said today that his organization did not want aid or sympathy and he warned other organizations to "keep their hands off." The industrial workers last night offered to go on a sympathetic strike.

BAXTER FALLS

From a Scaffold upon Which He is Working and May Be Fatally Injured.

Bert Baxter, a carpenter of Adamsport, is a patient at the Kessler hospital suffering from serious if not fatal injuries which he received at 2:15 o'clock Wednesday afternoon when a scaffold, upon which he was standing while roofing a barn for W. F. Allen at Point Comfort fell and threw him to the ground. A heavy piece of the scaffold fell upon his head rendering him unconscious. He had not recovered at the Telegram's press hour.

Mr. Baxter and two other carpenters were building the barn and had their work almost completed. When the accident occurred they were putting on the roofing. The other two men received painful but not serious injuries. Mr. Baxter was rushed to the hospital where medical attention was rendered but his recovery is doubtful.

LINCOLN'S ADDRESS

Many foreign representatives will exhibit at the coming International Horse Show at Madison Square Garden, New York, November 15-22. Among the more important of the foreigners who will take part are Lieutenant N. K. Heiberg of the Akershus dragoon regiment of Norway, and Captain H. P. Parker, one of the many officers representing the British army who will exhibit in the Garden.

HEROES

Are Three of the Men on Spanish Steamer While Same is Burning at Sea.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Three names stood out conspicuously in the stories of bravery told today when the Cunard liner, Pannonia, brought to port the passengers rescued from the burning Spanish steamer, Balmes.

Captain Ruiz, of the Balmes, spent practically five days without sleep while he and his men held the flames in check and guided their ship safely into the harbor of Saint George, Bermuda.

Innocencio Micharia, the wireless operator on the Balmes, sent the message that brought the Pannonia. Since there was only one other man on board who understood English, Micharia was obliged to be on duty without rest to translate the messages received from the rescuing ship.

Nicholas Arborelius was the man who led the passengers into the blazing hold of the Balmes last Thursday after the members of the crew were exhausted and ready to give up the fight.

TRIAL PUT OVER.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—After having been called for trial today the case of Hans Schmidt, slayer of Anna Ammiller, was put over by consent of both sides until November 25.

Miss Bessie Farnsworth, of Buckhannon, is a guest of her aunt, Mrs. N. R. Davis, at her home on West Pike street.

STRIKE WILL TIE UP GARMENT FACTORIES

GIFFORD PINCHOT

Says Stern Methods Are Being Adopted to Save Public Control of Water Power.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19.—With the declaration that the water power of the United States was rapidly passing under monopolistic control, Gifford Pinchot, former chief forester of the government, today told delegates to the National Conservation Congress that stern methods must be adopted to offset the tendency. His address was accepted by some of the delegates as a defiance to those who are said to seek the loosening of federal control and an extension of the regulatory powers of the individual states. "If the public rights cannot be recognized without conflict," said Mr. Pinchot with emphasis, "then we shall have to fight and if we have to fight, now is the time."

PASSENGER PIGEONS

Supposed to Be Extinct Are Found in Michigan, According to Report.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
LANSING, Mich., Nov. 19.—According to a report received by State Game Warden Ooats, a flock of passenger pigeons has been located in Emmett county. It is said that the naturalists have claimed that the passenger pigeon has become extinct in this country although they were plentiful about twenty years ago. If the report is confirmed, every effort will be made by the state to protect the birds according to the game warden.

GENERAL STRIKE

Of Factory Hands throughout Northern Part of Russia is on at Present.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 19.—A general strike of factory hands here and throughout northern Russia started today, 65,000 laying down their tools this morning. The movement is a protest by the workmen against the trial of some employees of the Bnchov works on a charge of illegally quitting their employment. The proceedings against them opened in the district court here today.

FINED $5 AND COSTS.

F. D. Franks, the strong man who has been giving exhibitions of his wonderful strength in the city for the last week pleaded guilty to a charge of assaulting and beating Harry Hull on Fourth street near the Annex hotel Monday night at a hearing before Justice Jackson V. Carter Tuesday evening and was fined $5 and costs. He paid the fine and was released.

Just One Union of 350 Men to Throw 150,000 Workers Out of Employment.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—One hundred and fifty thousand clothing workers in New York City face idleness within forty-eight hours because of the strike of a single union of 350 men.

Every man in this union has quit and unless the strike is broken or the men return to work the entire garment working industry of the city will be tied up. In this connection, the strikers claim they are corroborated by the Employers Association.

The striking association is the cloth examiners and spongers union. Every yard of cloth, converted into clothing in New York, passes through its hands. The members examine, sponge and press the cloth as it comes from the mills and pass it on to the garment factories.

SPURIOUS LIQUOR

As Well as Bad Money is Said to Be Made by Two Men Now under Arrest.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
TROY, N. Y., Nov. 19.—Counterfeiting liquor as well as counterfeiting money will be charged against Charles Ash and Edward Barry, who are under arrest here as the result of a raid in which a money making plant and a quantity of unfinished bills was seized. The police found in Barry's home, it was learned today, an outfit for making brandy and a stock of forged labels. Four hundred bottles of the counterfeit liquor were located in Troy saloons.

CHURCH ADVERTISING

Campaign in the City of Cleveland to Increase Congregations is Begun.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 19.—Two hundred Protestant churches will be asked today to co-operate in an advertising campaign which aims to increase every congregation in the city.

The Rev. Dr. W. W. Bustard will submit his plan of church advertising this afternoon to the Rev. E. E. Wright, secretary of the federated churches. For the last three weeks, Dr. Bustard has advertised the Euclid Avenue Baptist church of which he is pastor and as a result preached to a congregation of 1,000 last Sunday evening. John D. Rockefeller attends services at this church when in Cleveland and he has been superintendent of the Sunday school for many years.

DAUGHTER BORN.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Coffindaffer announce the birth of their daughter, Virginia Katherine Coffindaffer, which occurred November 17, 1913, at the Johnson-Willis sanatorium in Richmond, Va. The baby weighs seven pounds and mother and it are doing fine.

FINES

Are Imposed on Persons in the Criminal Court Who Enter Pleas of Guilty.

All jurors were excused Wednesday for the day in criminal court except those sitting at the trial of Stanley Pruss, accused of burglary. Russell Carder confessed to an assault of Richard Saulsbury and was fined $25 and costs.

Thomas J. Wolfe, indicted for an assault on Dr. J. W. Corder, entered a plea of nolle contendere and was fined $100 and costs.

Emmett White and Oscar Carroll were fined $5 and costs each upon confession of their guilt of misdemeanor, the theft of a small amount of junk from Schaffner Brothers.

The trial of Robert Banks, indicted for a felony, was continued until December 2.

Mike Schmidt and Dan Meezrawic were found guilty of grand larceny and a motion was made for a new trial.

PRINTER'S INK

To Be Extended All Over the World by Americans with Directory Planned.

WASHINGTON, November 9.—Americans are known the world over as "good advertisers," and there is now a disposition to extend the liberal use of printer's ink to foreign countries. American advertising thus accompanies American goods abroad. In response to requests from American manufacturers and exporters, the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce, is issuing a newspaper directory that contains lists of news and trade papers in the principal cities and towns in foreign countries, supplemented with information as to advertising rates, subscription price, circulation, etc. These lists were transmitted by American consular officers who are in a position to judge the value of local publications for advertising purposes.

No attempt has been made to publish complete schedules of advertising rates, but a general idea may be obtained from the facts furnished. Brief statements are given also of the population, trade, and industries of the districts covered by the reports. Copies of this publication will be sold by the Superintendent of Documents, government printing office, Washington, D. C., for twenty-five cents.

SENT TO ROADS.

Young men giving the names of William Moss, Owen Boyles, Charles Ingelman and Michael Costello were sentenced Wednesday in Magistrate T. G. Nicewarner's court to serve six days each at work on the county highways in default of paying fines for being drunk at the railroad station. Captain J. A. Campbell, of the railroad detective force, arrested and prosecuted them.

CONVALESCENT.

Mrs. W. H. Dye, of East Pike street, is recovering from a serious ailment for which a surgical operation was performed Saturday at St. Mary's hospital.

LEAGUE PRESIDENCY OFFERED TO TENER

And His Friends Believe He Will Accept the Place at a Good Salary.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 19.—Four representatives of National League of baseball clubs tendered to Governor John A. Tener, the presidency of the league today and the governor will give his answer late in the afternoon. The committee arrived shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon at the capitol and were taken for an automobile ride by the governor, who later entertained them at luncheon. In the party were H. W. Hempstead, New York; Charles H. Ebbetts, Brooklyn; H. Aucklander, Chicago; and W. H. Baker, Philadelphia.

None of the committee would make any statement as to the offers nor would the governor talk about it. To all inquirers he asked that they return later in the day. The committee said that the offer would be made public later and it is understood that the presidency will be for five years at a salary of $25,000 a year.

The governor's friends here believe he will accept, providing an arrangement can be made whereby the occupancy of the place will not interfere with his executive duties, which he will fill to the end of his term.

MILITARY LAWS

Are to Be Inaugurated at the End of the Week in the Colorado Strike District.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
TRINIDAD, Colo., Nov. 19.—Strict military law, including a military court, will be inaugurated at the close of this week unless definite steps, that give promise of ending the strike in the southern Colorado coal fields are taken in the interim. This is the statement issued today by Major E. J. Boughton, judge advocate of the Colorado national guard, after a conference with General John J. Chase and Frances E. Bouck, deputy attorney general.

MISSING GIRL

Works as a Waitress While Search All Over Country is Made for Her.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
CLEVELAND, Nov. 19.—Miss Bertha Robbins, the missing Schoolcraft, Mich., girl, for whom a search has been made since November 9, today left here to return home. While her father was searching for her in every city from Detroit to New York, she was working in the local Young Women's Christian Association as a $4 per week waitress. Newspaper stories of her parents' grief led her to write to them. Her mother came here and took her in custody. Her parents thought she had entered vaudeville.
